Comptroller

Ed:

I have given this a quick reading and on the surface it appears that the DD/I has made several constructive suggestions. I have retained a copy for further study but, in the meantime, request that you and [] study the various points raised and then perhaps we should get together and discuss them. In any event, we should give the DD/I a reply. I know from talking with some of the DD/I office heads that they feel that we cause them a lot of unnecessary work. I would like to look into this thoroughly and see if we can do anything to improve.

I thought perhaps you would want to get this on its way to the Comptroller and, therefore, suggest that you sign the buck slip. I have kept a copy so that Ed and I can analyze in more detail the suggestions made by the DDI group.
